Order

CCT/12-9/2011-12/502

(Under sub-section (5) of Section 13 of the Goa Value Added Tax Act, 2005)Sub: Compounding of offence relating to late filing of application for Renewal of Registration.Read: Order No. CCT/12-9/2011-12/4714 dated 18-02-2012 published in the Official Gazette, Series II No. 44 dated
2-2-2012.

Whereas it is observed that there are large number of dealers who have applied for renewal of their Registration Certificates under Rule 16 beyond the time limit prescribed therein. The said applicants have committed an offence which requires compounding. As there are large number of applicants in this category from various parts of the State it would be cumbersome for them to attend this office for the purpose.

In view of above, I, the undersigned, Commissioner of Commercial Taxes in exercise of powers conferred under sub-section (5) of Section 13 of the Goa Value Added Tax Act, 2005 and in supersession of order read above on same subject hereby delegate the power conferred in me under Clause (A) of Section 53 only as regards to compounding of offence relating to renewal of registration under Rule 16 of the Goa Value Added Tax Rules, 2005 to the Authorities given below subject to conditions given below:

A. In cases where the application for renewal has been filed within one year from the last date of validity of Registration Certificate the compounding power is delegated to the respective unit in-charge Asst. Commercial Tax Officer/Commercial Tax Officer of the ward concerned.

B. In all other cases wherein the delay for renewal has been maximum of five years after the validity of the Registration Certificate the compounding power is delegated to the Asst. Commissioner of Commercial Taxes concerned having jurisdiction over the ward.

The power of compounding is delegated subject to following conditions which shall be strictly followed:—

1. The Compounding Authority should fix the compounding penalty @ Rs. 25/- per day of delay subject to a minimum penalty of Rs. 250/- but subject to a maximum penalty of sum equal to Registration renewal fees but not exceeding Rs. 5000/-.

2. In case the Net Output Tax after adjusting Input Tax Credit paid/payable by any of the dealer is less than Rs. 50,000/- per annum during the preceding Financial year then such dealer shall be charged 50 percent of the penalty as payable above.

3. All the applications for compounding including compounding required from Asst. Commissioner or the Commissioner in these matters shall be filed with the respective ward office. All the applications should be processed by respective unit in-charge officers in the Registration file and notings be recorded therein. Wherever the compounding period is more than one year all such matters should be processed by the unit in-charge officer and approval of the concerned Asst. Commissioner or the Commissioner be obtained on Registration file and formal order of compounding shall be issued by the unit in-charge officer only.

4. In case of renewal application filed late and no application for compounding is filed, then the unit in-charge officer should proceed to forthwith renew the Registration Certificate prospectively from the date of application. In case such case is compounded later then the intervening period may be regularised subsequently.

5. All applications for compounding/renewal filed with the ward office should be disposed off within 7 days including time required to obtain approval if any. This deadline should be strictly adhered to.

The Goa Value Added Tax based subsidy on H.S.D. Oil consumed by Fishing Vessels Scheme, 2012

The Government of Goa is hereby pleased to modify the Scheme for granting Value Added Tax based subsidy on H.S.D. Oil consumed by the fishing vessels in the State of Goa namely:—

1. Short title and commencement.— (1) This Scheme may be called the Goa Value Added Tax based subsidy on H.S.D. Oil consumed by Fishing Vessels Scheme, 2012.

(2) It shall come into force from the financial year 2012-13 onwards.

2. Introduction.— (1) It is observed that the operational cost of the fishing vessels have been increasing alarmingly due to the ever-rising cost of the fuel, the H.S.D. Oil. The cost of fuel constitutes 60% of the operational cost of fishing vessel. With the reported depletion in fish catch, the fishing trips prove to be uneconomical. Returns in fishing have become every uncertain as fishermen may have to wander in the sea for a whole day without any fish catch. The plight of fishermen is therefore, very miserable.

The diesel prices are increasing day by day however, the fish catch has shown no sign of increase. Further, with the introduction of Value Added Tax in the State, the total tax has also been increased. The Owners of fishing vessels have been demanding the exemption of the VAT as the sales tax was exempted for them before introduction of VAT. However, since under VAT such exemption cannot be given as there is no provision in the Goa Value Added Tax Act, 2005 (Goa Act 9 of 2005) implemented with effect from (April, 2005). Therefore, it has proposed to grant subsidy on Value Added Tax paid on the H.S.D. Oil consumed by the fishing vessels in the State of Goa.

3. Objectives.— The main objective of the Scheme is to provide relief to the operators of the fishing vessels to overcome the financial losses suffered by them on account of the ever-increasing cost of the fuel, the H.S.D. Oil so as to enable them to sustain themselves.

This Scheme thus designed to support fishing industry in the State of Goa by granting subsidy on Value Added Tax payable by fishing vessels on H.S.D. Oil consumed by them for the propose of fishing activities.

4. Eligibility conditions.— For being eligible under this Scheme, the owner of the fishing vessel—

(a) Should be registered under the Goa, Daman and Diu Marine Fishing Regulation Act, 1980 (3 of 1981);

(b) Shall be a member of a registered co-operative society;

(c) Should possess a valid net licence and fishing licence for the year;

(d) Shall not be a defaulter of the Department of Fisheries;

(e) Shall not be a violator of the Goa, Daman and Diu Marine Fishing Regulation Act, 1980 (3 of 1981) and Rules framed thereunder;

(f) Shall procure H.S.D. Oil from a diesel outlet run by the registered Fisheries Co-operative Society or outlets approved by the Government of Goa.

5. Quantum of Subsidy.— (1) An amount equivalent to the actual Value Added Tax paid shall be paid to the owner of fishing vessel eligible under this Scheme as subsidy, on H.S.D. Oil consumed by fishing vessel used for the propose of fishing.

(2) The total quota of H.S.D. Oil for the purpose of this Scheme shall be restricted to 20,000 kls. for the entire fishing industry.

6. Application.— The owner of fishing vessel shall apply to Director of Fisheries, Panaji with all the details as required by the Directorate of Fisheries for the purpose of availing benefit of subsidy under this Scheme.

7. Mode of implementation of the Scheme.— (1) The total quota of 20,000 kls. shall be distributed to each society by the Fisheries Department based on the number and capacity of fishing vessels in the Co-operative Society.

(2) The Fishermen's Co-operative Societies shall in turn distribute the quota to each of its members based on the capacity of each fishing vessel and the number of fishing trips the vessel makes.

(3) The Fishermen's Co-operative Societies shall procure the H.S.D. Oil from public sector oil companies and supply it to its members.

(4) A pass book should be supplied by the Fishermen's Co-operative Society to each of its member and the quantum of diesel supplied at each time shall be entered on the pass book.

(5) Every member shall maintain his pass book and get entered at each time the quantum of diesel supplied to his fishing vessel.

(6) Every member shall record the actual quantity of the fish catch, as per his fishing trips on the log book issued by the Department of Fisheries.

(7) The Fishermen's Co-operative Society shall maintain a separate register of the quantum of diesel supplied to its members for the operation of the fishing vessels.

(8) The registers and pass book shall be produced before the Director of Fisheries or any other officer as authorised by the Director of Fisheries, for the purpose of inspection, as and when required.

(9) The register shall be produced before the Department of Fisheries by the end of every quarter, starting from the month of March, in the specified format.

(10) The payment of subsidy will be made at every quarter of the year or half yearly, either through the Fishermen's Co-operative Society or directly to the Owners of fishing vessel by the Department of Fisheries.

8. Physical target.— All the registered fishing vessels and operational in condition to be covered under this Scheme.

9. Financial target.— (1) The subsidy actual Value Added Tax paid per litre is proposed on the H.S.D. Oil consumed by the fishing vessel. The total quota on which the subsidy is applicable shall be 20,000 Kls.

(2) The required Budget provision shall be provided by Directorate of Fisheries under the Budget Head: "2405—Fisheries; 00; 103—Marine Fisheries; 06—Financial Assistance on Goa Value Added Tax, VAT based on subsidies (Plan)".

By order and in the name of the Governor of Goa.

Nandkishor V. Verlekar, Director & ex officio Joint Secretary (Fisheries).

New Delhi, the 22nd September, 2010/Bhadra 31, 1932 (Saka)

The following Act of Parliament received the assent of the President on the 21st September, 2010, and is hereby published for general information:—

THE NALANDA UNIVERSITY ACT, 2010

No. 39 of 2010 [21st September, 2010]

AN

to implement the decisions arrived at the Second East Asia Summit held on the 15th January, 2007, at Philippines and subsequently at the Fourth East Asia Summit held on the 25th October, 2009, at Thailand for the establishment of the Nalanda University in the State of Bihar as an international institution for pursuit of intellectual, philosophical, historical and spiritual studies and for matters connected therewith or incidental thereto.

Whereas, the Second East Asia Summit held on the 15th January, 2007 in the city of Cebu, Republic of Philippines, agreed to strengthen regional educational co-operation by tapping the East Asia Region's centres of excellence in education and for the revival of the Nalanda

University located in the State of Bihar to improve regional understanding and the appreciation of one another's heritage and history;

And whereas, the Fourth East Asia Summit held on the 25th October, 2009 in Hua Hin, Thailand, supported the establishment of the Nalanda University and encouraged the networking and collaboration between the proposed Nalanda University and existing centres of excellence in the East Asia Summit so as to participating countries to build a community of learning where students, scholars, researchers and academicians can work together symbolising the spirituality that unites all mankind;

And whereas, it is considered expedient to make provision for implementing the decisions arrived at in the aforesaid East Asia Summits for establishment of the Nalanda University in the State of Bihar and declare it to be an institution of national importance.

Be it enacted by Parliament in the Sixty-first Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. Short title and commencement.— (1) This Act may be called the Nalanda University Act, 2010.

(2) It shall come into force on such date as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint and different dates may be appointed for different provisions of this Act.

2. Declaration of Nalanda University as an institution of national importance.— Whereas the objects of the institution known as the Nalanda University are such as to make the institution one of national importance, it is hereby declared that the institution known as the Nalanda University is an institution of national importance.

(l) all other matters which by this Act are to be, or may be, provided by the Statutes.

28. Statutes how made.— (1) The first Statutes shall be made by the Governing Board, with the prior approval of the Visitor, within six months of the commencement of this Act, for operation of University.

(2) The Governing Board may, from time to time, make new or additional Statutes or may amend or repeal the Statutes referred to in sub-section (1):

Provided that the Governing Board shall not make, amend or repeal any Statute affecting the status, powers or constitution of any authority of the University until such authority has been given a reasonable opportunity to express its opinion in writing on the proposed changes and any opinion so expressed has been considered by the Governing Board.

(3) Every new Statute or addition to the Statutes or any amendment or repeal thereof shall require the assent of the Visitor, who may assent thereto or withhold assent or remit to the Governing Board for reconsideration in the light of the observations, if any, made by him.

(4) A new Statute or a Statute amending or repealing an existing Statute shall not be valid unless it has been assented to by the Visitor.

(5) Notwithstanding anything contained in the foregoing sub-sections, the Visitor may direct the University to make provisions in the Statutes in respect of any matter specified by him and if the Governing Board is unable to implement such a direction within sixty days of its receipt, the Visitor may, after considering the reasons, if any, communicated by the Governing Board for its inability to comply with such directions, make or amend the Statutes suitably.

29. Ordinances.— (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act and the Statutes, the Ordinances may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:—

(a) the admission of students, the courses of study and fees therefor, the qualifications pertaining to degrees, diplomas, certificates and other courses, the conditions for the grant of fellowships, awards and the like;

(b) the conduct of examinations, including the terms and conditions and manner of appointment of examiners;

(c) any other matter which by this Act or the Statutes is to be, or may be, provided for by the Ordinances.

(2) The first Ordinances shall be made by the Vice-Chancellor with the previous approval of the Governing Board and the Ordinances so made may be amended, repealed or added to at any time by the Governing Board, in the manner prescribed by the Statutes.

30. Regulations.— The authorities of the University may make regulations consistent with this Act, the Statutes and the Ordinances for the conduct of their own business and that of the committees, if any, appointed by them and not provided for by this Act, the Statutes or the Ordinances, in the manner prescribed by the Statutes.

31. Annual report.— (1) The annual report of the University shall be prepared under the directions of the Governing Board which shall include, among other matters, the steps taken by the University towards the fulfilment of its objectives.

(2) The annual report so prepared shall be submitted to the Visitor on or before such date as may be prescribed by the Statutes.

(3) A copy of the annual report so prepared shall also be submitted to the Member States and exhibited on the website of the University.

32. Annual accounts, etc.— (1) The annual accounts and the balance sheet of the University shall be prepared under the directions of the Governing Board and shall, once at least every year, and at intervals of not more than fifteen months, be audited by the Comptroller and Auditor-General of India.

(2) A copy of the accounts together with the audit report shall be submitted to the Visitor along with the observations, if any, of the Governing Board.

(3) Any observations made by the Visitor on the annual accounts shall be brought to notice of the Governing Board and the views of the Governing Board, if any, on such observations shall be submitted to the Visitor.

(4) A copy of the annual report and annual accounts together with the audit report, as submitted to the Visitor, shall also be submitted to the Central Government, which shall, as soon as may be, cause the same to be laid before both the Houses of Parliament.

(5) The audited annual accounts, after having been laid before both the Houses of Parliament, shall be published in the Gazette of India.

(6) A copy of the audited annual accounts shall also be submitted to the Member States.

33. Conditions of service of employees.— (1) Every employee of the University shall be appointed under a written contract, which shall be lodged with the University and a copy of which shall be furnished to the employee concerned.

(2) Any dispute arising out of the contract between the University and any employee shall, at the request of the employee, be referred to a Tribunal of Arbitration consisting of one member appointed by the Governing Board, one member nominated by the employee concerned and an umpire appointed by the Visitor.

(3) The decision of the Tribunal shall be final, and no suit shall lie in any civil court in respect of the matters decided by the Tribunal.

(4) Every request made by an employee under sub-section (2), shall be deemed to be a submission to arbitration upon the terms of this section within the meaning of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996.

26 of 1996.

(5) The procedure for regulating the work of the Tribunal shall be prescribed by the Statutes.

34. Procedure of appeal and arbitration in disciplinary cases against students.— (1) Any student or candidate for an examination whose name has been removed from the rolls of the University by the orders or resolution of the Vice-Chancellor, Disciplinary Committee or Examination Committee, as the case may be, and who has been debarred from appearing at the examinations of the University for more than one year, may, within ten days of the date of receipt of such orders or copy of such resolution by him, appeal to the Governing Board and the Governing Board may confirm, modify or reverse the decision of the Vice-Chancellor or the Committee, as the case may be.

(2) Any dispute arising out of any disciplinary action taken by the University against a student shall, at the request of such student, be referred to a Tribunal of Arbitration and the provisions of sub-sections (2), (3), (4) and (5) of section 33 shall, as far as may be, apply to a reference made under this sub-section.

35. Right to appeal.— Every employee or student of the University or of a School of Studies or Centre or Institution maintained by the University or admitted to its privileges shall, notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, have a right to appeal within such time as may be prescribed by the Statutes, to the Governing Board against the decision of any officer or authority of the University or of the Principal or the management of any School of Studies or Centre or an Institution, as the case may be, and thereupon the Governing Board may confirm, modify or reverse the decision appealed against.

36. Provident and pension funds.— The University shall constitute for the benefit of its employees such provident or pension fund or provide such insurance schemes as it may deem fit in such manner and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed by the Statutes.

37. Disputes as to the constitution of authorities and bodies.— If any question arises as to whether any person has been duly nominated or appointed as, or is entitled to be a member of any authority or other body of the University, the matter shall be referred to the Visitor whose decision thereon shall be final.

38. Filing of casual vacancies.— All the casual vacancies among the members (other than ex officio members) of any authority or other body of the University shall be filled, as soon as may be convenient, by the person or body who appoints, nominates or co-opts the members whose place has become vacant and any person so appointed, elected or co-opted to a casual vacancy shall be a member of such authority or body for the residue of the term for which the person whose place he fills would have been a member.

39. Proceedings of authorities or bodies not invalidated by vacancies.— No act or proceedings of any authority or any other body of the University shall be invalid merely by reason of the existence of any vacancy or vacancies among its members.

40. Protection of action taken in good faith.—No suit or other legal proceedings shall lie against any officer or employee of the University for anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done in pursuance of any of the provisions of this Act, the Statutes or the Ordinances.

41. Power to remove difficulties.— (1) If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Act, the Central Government may, by order, published in the Gazette of India, make such provisions, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, as appears to it to be necessary or expedient for removing the difficulty:

Provided that no such order shall be made under this section after the expiry of a period of three years from the commencement of this Act.

(2) Every order made under this section shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of Parliament.

42. Statutes, Ordinances and Regulations to be published in the Official Gazette and to be laid before Parliament.— (1) Every Statute, Ordinance or Regulation made under this Act shall be published in the Gazette of India and the website of the University.

(2) Every Statute, Ordinance or Regulation made under this Act shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of Parliament, while it is in session, for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two or more successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session immediately following the session or successive sessions aforesaid, both the Houses agree in making any modification in the Statute, Ordinance or Regulation or both Houses agree that the Statute, Ordinance or Regulation should not be made, the Statute, Ordinance or Regulation shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that Statute, Ordinance or Regulation.

43. Transitional provisions.— Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act and the Statutes,—

(a) the first Registrar and the first Finance Officer shall be appointed by the Governing Board and each of the said officers shall hold office for a term of three years;

(b) the first Board of School of Studies shall consist of not more than eleven members, who shall be nominated by the Governing Board and they shall hold office for a term of three years;

(c) the first Academic Council shall consist of not more than nineteen members, who shall be nominated by the Governing Board and they shall hold office for a term of three years:

Provided that if any vacancy occurs in the above offices or authorities, the same shall be filled by appointment or nomination, as the case may be, by the Governing Board, and the person so appointed or nominated shall hold office for so long as the officer or member in whose place he is appointed or nominated would have held office, if such vacancy had not occurred.

44. Repeal of University of Nalanda Act.— (1) The University of Nalanda Act, 2007 is hereby Bihar Act 18 of 2007. repealed.

(2) Notwithstanding such repeal,—

(a) all appointments made, orders issued, degrees and other academic distinctions conferred, diplomas and certificates awarded, privileges granted, or other things done under the University of Nalanda Act, 2007, shall be deemed to have been respectively made, issued, conferred, awarded, granted or done under the corresponding provisions of this Act and, except as otherwise provided by or under this Act or the Statutes, continue in force unless and until they are superseded by any order made under this Act or the Statutes; and

18 of 2007.

(b) all proceedings of Selection Committees for the appointment or promotion of teachers that took place before the commencement of this Act and all actions of the Governing Body in respect of the recommendations of such Selection Committees where no orders of appointment on the basis thereof were passed before the commencement of this Act shall, notwithstanding that the procedure for selection has been modified by this Act, be deemed to have been valid but further proceeding in connection with such pending selections shall be taken in accordance with the provisions of this Act and be continued from the stage where they stood immediately before such commencement, except if the concerned authorities take, with the approval of the Visitor, a decision to the contrary.
